Long Eaton Chamber of Trade - October 2014 Newsletter

Members news:

Hassall & Lucking Ltd has recently purchased a new digital printing machine that can print on a wider variety of papers than the previous machine and at a higher quality. The machine was purchased from Long Eaton firm M O S (Sales and Service) Ltd at 20/22 Lower Brook Street who are suppliers of professional OKI digital printing machines. Michael Lucking says "We chose this firm because of the high level of support we have received from Mike Bowden at that firm looking after our previous OKI printing machine"

Alan McGowan Architects Ltd have moved into new offices at Bridge House, Cranmer Street, Long Eaton, NG10 1NL. Telephone number remains 0115 875 8021.

RDG Accounting recently held their 2nd MacMillan's coffee morning at their new offices in Castle Donington. They had great support from their staff, family, friends and local businesses which ensured the wide variety of scrumptious cakes were enjoyed. The Tombola and donations ensured £400 was made for this popular charity.

JN Consulting. We welcome our newest member Jo Neville who is based in Breaston. From leaving school Jo started working in the hospitality industry with various chains including the Queens Moat House, Best Western and Virgin.

In 2011 she started JN Consulting offering a variety of services including full Event Management, Proactive Sales Support, Mystery Shopper calls and visits and wedding planning / management.

Jo works with a variety of SME's and larger Blue Chip Companies all over the UK and Europe and by joining the Chamber of Trade hopes to get a more local client base and help develop and promote the area in which she now lives. The web site is www.jnconsultant.co.uk Swanns Menswear. Their new shop frontage is a credit to the business and also Long Eaton. Next time you are in Long Eaton pop into Swanns Menswear.

Long Eaton High Street

On Wednesday 15th October residents have a chance to talk about Long Eaton High Street and hear how they can make their views known. The meeting will feature a talk by Steve Birkinshaw, Erewash Borough Council's Head of Regeneration and Planning, who will give details of a consultation launched by the council on the current access arrangements for vehicles onto the High Street.

The meeting, which is being held in the Council Chamber at Long Eaton Town Hall at 7.00pm, will also provide an opportunity to discuss ideas to help breathe new life into the High Street.

Long Eaton Christmas Lights and Charity Stalls

This popular Town Centre event is taking place on Thursday 27th November with the switching on of the lights by our mayor with support from a local youngster at 7.00pm.

The Chamber of Trade will also be arranging for many stalls on the old Market Place and full details can be found on the web site. www.longeatonchamber.org.uk

Book early to avoid disappointment as the number of stalls are limited.

Platform for improvements

Plans to make the area around Long Eaton Railway Station more welcoming and promote it as the main gateway for visitors to the town look set to get the green light from Erewash Borough Council
