July 2016 Newsletter

Members' updates:

Long Eaton Chamber member Clayton & Brewill recently celebrated its 70th anniversary, making it one of Nottinghamshire's oldest independent chartered accountants. Partners Neil South, Yvonne Jackson and Doug Perry welcomed more than 100 clients and friends of the firm to a drinks and canapés reception, where guests were entertained by live music from saxophone quartet 'The Sax Chicks'.

As part of its anniversary celebrations the firm is also holding a series of events to raise funds for its two chosen charities, Forever Stars and the Lincolnshire & Nottinghamshire Air Ambulance. Staff and partners at Clayton & Brewill started the fund-raising activities with a charity abseil down The Roaches in Derbyshire, raising over £3,000 in sponsorship donations.
